Glenview, IL. – The Glen Town Center, who will be celebrating its 5th anniversary in October and has built a solid reputation as a favorite family destination for dining, shopping or simply relaxing and having fun, announces the opening of two new restaurants serving lunch and dinner.

Chop It Up! compliment our audiences' lifestyle to provide them with an overall exceptional experience. Michael Salerno's Pizzeria is a Chicago favorite and Chop It Up! Salad & Wrap Company is the only restaurant of its kind in Illinois."

Serving cocktails, appetizers, entrees, desserts and coffees, The Glen's restaurants fashionably line its main corridors with café-style seating in the summer, buzzing with a high energy atmosphere throughout the day and evening hours all year long.

Besides Chop It Up! Salad & Wrap Company and Michael Salerno's Pizzeria, The Glen will be adding Top Gun Dogs and a Spanish-style tapas restaurant in the Fall.

Chop It Up! Salad & Wrap Company

Chop It Up! Salad & Wrap Company, the only one in the Chicagoland area, is an innovative restaurant which embraces a fresh new concept and design. Customers can either craft their own salads—choosing from six greens, dozens of gourmet toppings, and 28 house-made dressings—or pick one of the "chef-designed" options. Any salad can also be ordered as a wrap sandwich, and a handful of homemade soups round out the menu.

Chop It Up! focuses on providing an outstanding dining experience set in a contemporary, energetic clean atmosphere supported by the highest levels of quality. Ingredients are made from scratch everyday, with fresh produce arriving every morning. Chop It Up! also offers al fresco dining.

Michael Salerno's Pizzeria

People, who know pizza, know that Michael Salerno's Pizzeria has been serving up the best pies in the Chicago area for over 40 years. A family owned business, siblings Peter Lia and Maria Salerno emigrated from southern Italy to Chicago as youngsters to "find a better life." They brought the family recipes and the understanding of the unique taste of Italian food, and created Michael Salerno's Pizzeria restaurant business. Known for their bustling festive environment and always providing an exceptional dining experience, Michael Salerno's Pizzeria will also feature al fresco dining at The Glen.
